XII. MAYOR, ASSEMBLY, AND STAFF COMMENTS

Mr. Moosey encouraged residents to be firewise and be prepared to evacuate if they are in the danger zones. Thanked Department of Emergency Services for all their hard work during the fire crisis. Noted all the outside help from other fire fighters and fire agencies. Commented on how well they all work together. Stated if you see a fireman, thank them.

Ms. McKechnie stated that there are four of the seven Assembly members that use the iLegislate app to electronically view their packet. Noted that because of that, the body cannot use the full functionality of the program. Noted that the Borough uses five modules from Granicus at an annual approximate amount of $26,000.

Assemblymember Sykes stated that he is hopeful that the weather cooperates and the fire fighters are able to get the fires under control soon. Spoke to the importance of creating a defensible space around homes. Thanked all the fire fighters for their dedication and hard work.

Assemblymember Boeve noted that the Caswell Fire is a tragedy. Spoke to a residents who have lost everything, including their homes and that are now displaced. Noted her efforts of trying to get information out to residents as quickly as possible. Thanked the fire fighters responding to fires all over the State. Noted that she knows several of them personally and many have not slept in days. Related that there are some who have lost their homes while they were out fighting fires. Thanked her constituents for their patience during this trying time.

Assemblymember Mayfield thanked the fire fighters who are responding to fires and noted that they are true heroes as they are on the front line waging the battle without any complaints. Related that he is praying for those who have lost their homes. Wished the body a good evening.

Assemblymember Sumner noted that the Borough has experienced a lot of trying events over the last year. Stated that residents can stay safe by adhering to the burn bans that are in place. Opined that the continued public hearing for Ordinance Serial Nos. 19-092 and 19-093 should still have been held even if no action was going to be taken.

Assemblymember Leonard noted that his thoughts and prayers are with all those impacted by the fire and the first responders who are on the front lines. Thanked all volunteers that are assisting in supporting firefighting efforts. Thanked the city of Wasilla for opening up the Menard Center as a shelter. Noted his admiration for Assemblymember Boeve for her dedication to her constituents.
