

I MOVE to amend Resolution 26-043, in the third whereas clause, by striking the words “representative democracy” and insert in its place “constitutional republic” to read:

WHEREAS, in a constitutional republic, it is often bad public policy for dictates to be handed down by higher levels of government who are not in touch with local concerns.